CHIEF EXECUTIVE SAYS GIVE THANKS

President Wilson's Proclamation Says Nation Has Been Bountifully Blessed.

The following is the main text of President Woodrow Wilson's Thanksgiving proclamation:

The season is at hand in which it has been our long respected custom as a people to turn in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for his manifold mercies and blessings to us as a nation. The year that has just passed has been marked in a peculiar degree by manifestations of His gracious and benevolent providence. We have not only had peace throughout our own borders and with the nations of the world, but that peace has been brightened by constantly multiplying evidences of genuine friendship, of mutual sympathy and understanding, and of the happy operation of many elevating influences both of ideal and of practice. The nation has been prosperous not only but has proved its capacity to take calm counsel amidst the rapid movement of affairs and deal with its own life in a spirit of candor, righteousness and comity. We have seen the practical completion of a great work at the isthmus of Panama which not only exemplifies the nation's abundant resources to accomplish what it will, and the distinguished skill and capacity of its public servants, but also promises the beginning of a new era of new contracts, new neighborhoods, new sympathies, new bonds and new achievements of co-operation and peace. "Righteousness exalteth a nation" and "peace on earth, good will towards men" furnish the only foundations upon which can be built the lasting achievements of the human spirit. The year has brought us the satisfaction of work well done and fresh visions of our duty which will make the work of the future better still.

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-seventh of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and invite the people throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks to Almighty God.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR, FREE FROM ALL DANDRUFF

Unwisely, matted, scraggy hair is a sign of neglect—of dandruff, the hair destroyer. Surely use Parisian Sage. It is a scientific preparation, based on a thorough knowledge of what is needed to cleanse the scalp and hair, keeping them perfectly healthy, stop scalp itch and falling hair and make hair grow. Get a 50 cent bottle from Wallace Haymaker Co. today—pour a little on a sponge or cloth and rub lightly over the hair, taking a small strand at a time—rub it into the scalp. Pronto! The dandruff surely disappears; the hair is free from itch and excessive oil and is doubly beautiful. Try it now—it will not only save your hair and make it soft, shiny and abundant, but give it that incomparable class and beauty you desire.—Advertisement.

BOWLING NEWS

Salem Breaks Record.
Clark Ingram and his Salem team were late arriving here for the game to be played last evening. The game did not start until 8:30, and it would have been a lucky event for the local team if they had never arrived. They handed the locals one of the hardest defeats of the year, rolling 1,800 in the three games, defeating the locals eighty-four pins in the contest. The score of 1,800 in the three games is the largest score ever rolled on the alleys.

Ingram, captain of the Salem team, broke all records, city and state, last night when he rolled 225 in the second game of the contest, and his total of 507 was also a record breaker. His average for the three games was 169, which is considered a good ten pin average, much less a duck pin average.

Harry Davidson, of the local team, rolled a splendid game, totaling 409 in the three games, and rolling 159 in the second game for an average of 136 in the three games.

Salem's score of 633 in the second game is also high score for one team in a single game.

NARROW ESCAPE

From Death by Drowning, in Elk Creek Has Mr. Sage, a Local Gas Fitter.

W. P. Sage, an employee of the Clarksburg Light and Heat Company, narrowly escaped death by drowning Monday afternoon just below the tin plate mill dam across Elk creek. While he and other employees were engaged in repairing a gas line along the Elk creek bank near the dam, when rocks on which Mr. Sage stood slid into the creek taking him with them. Fortunately he did not fall under any of them, but he landed in the deep pool just below the dam. He made heroic efforts to get out of the pool but without avail until a fellow employee waded in a safe distance and reached a pick to him and pulled him out.
